Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court hereby enters its Case Management Order governing the foregoing cases. These cases arise from, inter alia, the arrest and detention of plaintiffs by the New York City Police Department around the time of the Republican National Convention in New York City in late August and early September 2004 ("RNC Cases").

In these cases, the parties anticipate that issue will be joined shortly and that all of the material allegations of the complaints will be denied. Defendants have stipulated to the following terms at this time to permit plaintiffs the opportunity to participate in the consolidated discovery currently underway in the related RNC Cases.

In addition to this order, the parties agree to be bound by Discovery Order #1 (which provides for the consolidated depositions of certain defense witnesses); Discovery Order #2 (which provides for the scheduling of party depositions); Protective Order #1 (which provides for the confidential treatment of certain discovery materials) and all other protective orders entered in the consolidated RNC cases.

The Court is advised that one or both parties do not consent to trial of this case by magistrate judge. The parties are to conduct discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York. All motions and applications shall be governed by the Court's Individual Practices, including pre-motion conference requirements. This order may be modified only by agreement of the parties, subject to the Court's approval, or upon a showing of good cause.
